⚠️ *Important Notes on "Dar":

◆ *Unique Hybrid Verb:

Dar is technically an * -ar verb *, but it conjugates like an * -er/-ir verb * in key tenses:

Tense	Pattern	Example
-------	---------	---------

-----	-----	-----
-------	-------	-------

Present	-er/-ir endings	doy, das, da, damos, dais, dan
--------------------	-----------------	--------------------------------

Preterite	-er/-ir endings (no accents!)	di, diste, dio, dimos, disteis, dieron
----------------------	-------------------------------	--

Imperfect	Regular -ar endings	daba, dabas, daba, dábamos, dabais, daban
----------------------	---------------------	---

◆ *Key Irregularities:

- Present Yo: doy (not ~~dao~~)

- Preterite: No written accents (unlike regular -er/-ir: comí vs. di)

- Present Subjunctive: dé (with accent to distinguish from preposition de), des, dé, demos, deis, den

◆ Regular Forms :

- Gerund: dando
- Past Participle: dado
- Future & Conditional: Use full infinitive → completely regular

 Common Phrases with "Dar":

| Phrase | Meaning | Example |

|-----|-----|-----|

| dar las gracias | to give thanks | Voy a dar las gracias. |

| dar un paseo | to take a walk | Damos un paseo por la tarde. |

| dar miedo | to scare | Me da miedo volar. |

| dar a luz | to give birth | Ella dio a luz ayer. |

| dar con | to find/stumble upon | Di con las llaves perdidas. |

 Pro Tip:
