⚠️ Important Notes on "Ver":

◆ Highly Irregular Verb — Multiple Patterns:

Ver is one of the most common and irregular verbs in Spanish.

| Tense | Irregularity | Example |

|-----|-----|-----|

| Present Yo | Irregular form | veo (NOT vo) |

| Preterite | Irregular stem v- | vi, viste, vio, vieron |

| Past Participle | Completely irregular | visto (NOT vido) |

| Imperfect | Irregular stem ve- | veía, veías, veía... |

! Critical Preterite Note:

*Yo vi and *Él/Ella vio have NO accent marks (unlike regular -er/-ir verbs like comí or viví).

◆ Imperfect Tense (One of Only 3 Irregulars):

Along with ser and ir, ver has an irregular imperfect tense:

- Yo veía, tú veías, él veía, nosotros veíamos, vosotros veíais, ellos veían.

◆ Present Subjunctive (based on yo veo):

que yo vea, tú veas, él vea, nosotros veamos, vosotros veáis, ellos vean

📝 *Important Usage Note: "Ver" vs. "Mirar":

| Verb | Meaning | Focus | Example |

|-----|-----|-----|-----|

| Ver | to see / to watch | Perception (passive or active) | Veo un pájaro.* / *Veo la tele. |

| Mirar | to look at / to watch | Intentional attention | Miro la pintura.* / *Miro la tele. |

💡 *Key Tip: For TV, movies, and sports, ver is more common in Latin America, while mirar is often used in Spain (though both are understood everywhere).

- Voy a ver una película. (Very common)

- Voy a mirar la televisión. (Also common)

◆ *Personal "A" with People:

When ver is followed by a specific person, use the personal a:

- Veo a María. (I see María.)

- ¿Viste a Juan? (Did you see Juan?)

📝 *Common Phrases with "Ver":

| Phrase | Meaning | Example |

|-----|-----|-----|

ver la televisión	to watch TV	Me gusta ver la televisión.
ver una película	to watch a movie	Vamos a ver una película.
ya verás	you'll see (future promise)	Estudia mucho y ya verás los resultados.
ver para creer	seeing is believing	¡Es increíble! Ver para creer.
no ver tres en un burro	to be blind as a bat (idiomatic)	Sin gafas, no veo tres en un burro.
¿Nos vemos?	See you? / Shall we meet?	¿Nos vemos mañana?

💡 Pro Tip — Common Structures with "Ver":

- Ver + noun = to see something
Veo un coche. (I see a car.)
- Ver + a + person = to see someone
Veo a mi amigo. (I see my friend.)
- Ver + infinitive = to see someone do something
La vi correr. (I saw her run.)
- Ir a ver = to go see (visit/watch)
Voy a ver al médico. (I'm going to see the doctor.)

💡 Regional Note:

In some contexts, ver can mean "to check" or "to look at":

- ¿Puedes ver si llegó el correo? (Can you check if the mail arrived?)
- Déjame ver. (Let me see / Let me check.)
